Delegate Dave Albo

Delegate Dave Albo represents the 42nd District of the Virginia House of Delegates and has been a member since 1994.

1) What would you say makes your jurisdiction great?
I love Fairfax County. I grew up here, live here, and work here. People are friendly, highly educated, and community minded. You can ask anyone in our area, and they will tell you, "I volunteer at my Church," or "I coach soccer or little league."

2) In 20 words or less, what message would you like to share with the George Mason University community?
Remember that when you look back at your life, you will say, "College was one of the best times of my life." So make the most of it! Study, participate, join a club, lead an organization, and have fun with your friends because they will be your friends for your entire life.

3) What was your first job?

4) What do you do when you're not working?
I like to play music! I played trombone from fifth grade through WSHS, and on through UVA. Unfortunately, I could not entertain my friends and family with songs on the trombone, so at 40 years old, I taught myself to play guitar. I now play bass and guitar in my band - Albopalooza. We are comprised of other members of the House of Delegates and some local friends and we play classic rock and some hair metal.

5) Do you have Apple or Android?
Apple all the way.
