1) What makes your jurisdiction great?
I believe the history that Alexandria has sets it apart from many other jurisdictions, and our ability to promote the historic nature of our community makes it great. We have a well-run government, which offers a wide variety of services that support our diverse population.

2) In 20 words or less, what message would you like to share with the George Mason University community?
We would love to have the George Mason University community invest their time and energy into Alexandria and its future.

3) What reading material is currently on our bedside table?
My fraternity's (Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.) magazine-- The Sphinx. This edition contains several articles on the current state of Black Men in America and what the fraternity proposes to move Black Men in America forward.

4) What was your first job?
I worked as a box office attendant at the then Hoyt's movie theater in Potomac Yards.

5) What is your favorite local restaurant?
Mai Thai in Old Town

6) What do you do when you’re not working?
I am never “not working”....lol. No, if I am not working, I am usually involved in some type of sports related activity, whether it is watching or participating.

7) Do you have Apple or Android?
I have both-- an iphone for city council and a Samsung Note 3 for personal. But I still miss my Blackberry....

8) What is the number one thing on your bucket list?
Swim with Great White Sharks. In a cage of course.

9) What is the biggest challenge facing your jurisdiction today?
The biggest challenge is two-fold: 1) being able to keep Alexandria affordable for the middle class 2) being able to keep up with rising costs of running a government that provides a wide variety of services for the residential and business communities in Alexandria.
