Delegate Scott Surovell represents the 44th District of the Virginia House of Delegates, which encompasses the U.S. 1 Corridor in the Mt. Vernon region of Fairfax County, Virginia along the Potomac River.

1) What would you say makes your jurisdiction great?
The 44th District is "great" because it is bounded by Potomac River, the George Washington Memorial Parkway and Bike Trail, it is home to Fairfax County's greatest resident, George Washington, and it is home to one of the most diverse populations in all of Northern Virginia.

2) In 20 words or less, what message would you like to share with the George Mason University community?
George Mason University is an asset to Northern Virginia and one of the drivers of our economy. Never forget that the Commonwealth of Virginia's taxpayers are investing about $40,000 in your education at George Mason if you are in-state. Take some time to give something back to Virginia for that investment.

3) What reading material is currently on your bedside table?
Three Books: Piano; Reign of Error; and The Better Angels of Our Nature

4) Do you have Apple or Android?
Droid

5) What is the biggest challenge facing your jurisdiction today?
Facilitating the redevelopment of the U.S. 1 Corridor
