

An Evening with Mark Rozell: A Post-election Analysis and the Implications for Virginia

November 15, 2016 at 7:00 PM
Old Town Hall, City of Fairfax
3999 University Drive, Fairfax, VA 22030

George Mason University, Fairfax City and The Northern Virginia Chamber of Commerce invite you to attend a lecture by Mark Rozell, Dean of Mason's Schar School of Policy and Government. Dean Rozell will provide a post-election analysis of the presidential campaign outcome and its implications for governing the next four years.

Mark J. Rozell is also the author of nine books and editor of twenty books on various topics in U.S. government and politics including the presidency, religion and politics, media and politics, and interest groups in elections. Dean Rozell writes frequent op-ed columns in such publications as Roll Call and Politico. You may have seen him on ABC "Nightline," ABC "World News Tonight," ABC "World News Sunday," ABC "Good Morning America," NBC "Today Show," NBC "Nightly News," CBS "Evening News," CNN "Inside Politics," CNN "Headline News," or NPR "All Things Considered."

Participating Fairfax City restaurants will be providing pre- and post-lecture discounts.

To follow Dean Mark Rozell on twitter: <https://twitter.com/MarkJRozellGMU>